

LONDONER SUPERSTORE

With growing demands and cut-throat competition in the market, a Superstore Giant is seeking your knowledge in understanding what works best for them. They would like to understand which products, regions, categories, and customer segments they should target or avoid.
What we need to know.

- How many records are in the dataset?
- What is the total sales?
- What is the total profit and profit margin?
- What are the best performing segments in terms of quantity bought?
- What are the best performing segments in terms of sales?
- What are the best performing segments in terms of profits?
- What are the best performing categories in terms of quantity bought?
- What are the best performing categories in terms of sales?
- What are the best performing categories in terms of profits?
- What are the top 10 best performing sub-category in terms of sales profit?
- What are the top 10 most purchased products?
- What are the top 10 products in terms of sales and profit?
- How do the regions perform in terms of sales and profits?
- What are the top 5 and bottom 5 states in terms of sales and profits
- How are our sales rep and managers performing in terms of sales?
- What is the sales by months and by days?

Create a dashboard showing the most important visuals chosen by you. Also do a presentation on your findings and recommendations.